BREED THEATER.

Modern Whale Fishing, Big Moving Picture Feature.

With this splendid and instructive picture as a feature, the Breed theater opened the new bill for the remainder of the week to a large and appreciative audience, which was most enthusiastic in its following of the details of this extraordinary picture. The complete trip is shown, and from the moment of the sighting of the monster whale to the final stripping of the fat for making oil there is not a dull moment, and the clearness of all the scenes is most remarkable. The motion of the sea is so perfect that it seems as if the audience was on the trim little boat themselves, the deck being free from passengers, there are no obstacles to obstruct the view.

Another big picture is the one entitled "At the Altar," and the Scodian scenes are a revelation to the public, while the fascinating story is intensely interesting.

The Dime Novel Detective is the real Hawshaw thing, and the many ludicrous climaxes make it one of the best comedy pictures of the season, there being a laugh for every minute.

The beautiful colored fairy pictures are a treat for the patrons, the children being especially delighted.

Queen of the Night, as sung by Madam Morelle, is the hit of the week, and Mr. Delaney is pleased to sing by popular request, "Love Me Any Time."

AT THE BROADWAY THEATER.

Vaudeville and Motion Pictures.

The lady member of the team of Collins and Ballard, the novelty singing act playing at the Broadway this week has worn some of the most beautiful gowns shown here this season. Her dresses are the creation of Worth and the duty on them alone cost a small fortune in itself. Miss Ballard is very fortunate in that she can have anything that money can buy, as she comes from an immensely wealthy family and is merely on the stage as a matter of choice. For the matinee Saturday she has held in reserve her most beautiful gown to be shown to the ladies and children attending. Miss Ballard does not allow her immense wealth to interfere with her work and she and her partner have an act that is a distinct novelty and has been making a big hit all week.

Legislative Recession?

The New London Telegraph proposes that the legislature take a vacation, and the idea, while novel, is not wholly without its advantages. Considering the continued illness of the governor, the important measures to be disposed of, the rush of home work which awaits the representatives from the smaller towns, the call of the soil, the tendency to divide attention when it should be concentrated, the inevitable dissatisfaction which results from doing legislative work in a hurry—considering the matter from all apparent viewpoints, it might be a good idea for the legislature to take a few months off. The Telegraph says:

"It is variously estimated that the general assembly will come to final adjournment some time between July 1 and Sept. 1, with the greater number of estimates adhering to the September date. If the estimates are founded on a fair weighing of the business before the legislature, then we suggest as a remedy that the general assembly adjourn now until next October and devote the winter months to passing on the business in hand. This would give the farmers all the time their duties at home demand and put off until the busy indoor business which might just as well go over without great loss to the state or to any individual. And by that time Governor Lilley will be restored to health and strength, and some of the nervous men at Hartford could then take a more comfortable view of the necessity of legislating for any future stringency such as exists at present. For all that is coming out of the legislative hopper, doesn't it seem it might be just as well to postpone the whole session about five months?"—Ansonia Sentinel.

Not That Color.

Willie lost his pet dog and was much distressed. He spent his time searching for it, and so often did he run into the house crying, "Come quick; there's Fido! I saw him!" the family grew somewhat dubious.

One day Willie rushed in more excited than usual. "Mamma, mamma!" he cried, "I've seen Fido! I've seen Fido!" "Oh, no; I guess not," replied the patient mother. "It must have been your imagination."

Willie looked at her, much aggrieved. "Well," he said indignantly, "I guess my imagination isn't white behind."—Exchange.

Disappearing Home Life.

The flat dweller ought not to keep a dog, prefers not to keep a cat, cannot have a garden, has no chance of keeping house, has no possible place for memories and most emphatically of all, has no use or accommodation for babies. Although it may be possible to make homes without kittens, or babies, or flowers, or memories, or cupboards, the spirit of home is hard to woo and win without any of them. —Fortnightly Review.

The recent heavy snow in the maritime provinces of Canada has given the lumbering industry new life, and the out will equal, if not surpass, that of last year.

MINNESOTA COMBINATION GARMENT.

Paris Pattern No. 2862 — All Seasons Allowed.

Developed in nainsook, Persian lawn, thin cambric, jaconet or batiste, this dainty little combination garment, comprising a corset cover and petticoat, will be found to be very useful to wear under the lawn or batiste frock. All unnecessary fullness is discarded, and the hips are disposed with the petticoat portion being fitted by darts on the hips and narrow plaits at the center-back, which supply the desired fullness. The fullness around the neck is regulated by a narrow ribbon-trimmed heading finished by Valenciennes lace, the armholes being trimmed to match, and the joining of the waist and skirt is hidden by heading. The garment fastens at the center-back.

The pattern is in three sizes—12 to 14 years. For a waist of 15 years the garment will require 4 1/2 yards of material 36 inches wide or 3 1/2 yards 42 inches wide, each with 3/4 yards of edging 1 1/2 inches wide for ruffle; 3/4 yards of heading, 3/4 yards of ribbon and 3/4 yards of narrow edging.

Price of pattern, 10 cents.

40--HORSES--40

Another carload just arrived, and I don't think a better lot can be found in any stable. They are the kind that every one likes—good build, gentle and well broken. Some are big drafters, others chunky, business horses and drivers. I am going to dispose of them as soon as possible, and no dealer in Connecticut can sell horses of the same class cheaper than I can or will at the same terms. Come and see me or telephone.

JUST ARRIVED AT MY STABLES

50 Horses

FROM THE LUMBER CAMPS.

I shall have two more carloads of those lumber horses from the White Mountains, and unless I am very much mistaken, there will be a buyer here today for every horse. Those Lumber Horses are a great snap for $60.00 for me. I get them all. They are bought by the lumbermen in the fall and are worked hard all winter, and when spring comes they must be sold. I have a contract with the lumbermen that I must get them every year. Such horses are rare and sure bargains. They are thin from very hard work but give them just a little show and see how quickly they will fill out. Having worked hard all winter, they are thoroughly acclimated and will start right in and work for all summer. PRICE $25.00 to $30.00.

Come today and bring your money with you—you'll surely want to buy when you see the horses. My last lot went in one day!

THREE CARLOADS OF OHIO, VERMONT AND IOWA HORSES.

Aside from the two carloads of Logging Horses, I shall have three carloads of selected Horses from Ohio, Vermont and Iowa. Magnificent Draft Horses, Farm Horses, Trotters, Pacers, Carriage Horses and Grocery Horses. Fancy stock, yearling colts, kind of fancy stock that blummental, and only blummental, can show you. I'm having a great sale, and I'm delivering the goods, and my prices are manifestly fair and reasonable.
